About seventy-five guests will be present, and they will go later to the Country Club to attend the dance there.

To Lecture at Woman's Club.

One of the most interesting events of the week will be the lecture given this evening by Sir Walter Roper Lawence, a distinguished official of the British government, in the auditorium of the Woman's Club at 8:30 o'clock. The address will be on the subject of "India," one on which he is well quatified to speak, since he served his government many years as private rec-retary to Lord Curzon, Viceroy of that ountry. The lecture is entirely oner to the public, and all interested, wheth-er members of the club or not, are dially invited to attend. Mrs. Knowles Dame of Honor the drive ends. An organization in Buckingham County is being perfected under things, largely other things, all meats have been marked up from 2 to 5 cents per pound, and hens, geese and turkeys go up with them. Country eggs are very scarce and they, too, are marked up higher than they have ever been known in Richmond. They were selling yesterday at 75 cents per dozen. All vegetables are scarce, but in the main prices have not been advanced.

The change for the better in the weather will probably bring some of these fancy prices down somewhat in a few days, so the dealers say, but nobody has been hearing in late months of anything going back down after it was once marked up to war time figures.

"I certainly want to do my part in this as in all such work," was the mes-sage from Dr. R. E. Blackwell, presi-dent of Randolph-Macon College, Ashland, who is directing the campaign in Hanover County. From Rev. T. S. Dunaway, of Smithfield, who accepted the post of chairman for Isle of Wight County, came the following: I am hard pressed to keep up with my regu-iar work. However, I want to do my bit and do it cheerfully." Rev. E. L. Woodard, of The Plains, chairman for Fauquier County, reported as follows:

"I shall do my best."

In reporting that he was organizing the city of Alexandria, Taylor Burke inquired if he would be allowed to include Alexandria and Fairfax Counties in a district campaign. He was noti-fied immediately that he most assuredly would be encouraged to put such a plan into effect. Admiration was expressed for his capacity for work. In Fluvanna County, Dr. A. R. Gray, of Palmyra, is serving as chairman. He acted in a similar capacity in the Y. M. C. A. drive last fail, and expressed a willing. ness to undertake to raise the $300 allotted to Fluvanna County by the War Camp Community Service. REPORTS FROM ALL SECTIONS SHOW PROGRESS C. Emory Widener, of Abingdon chairman for Washington County, sent word that $600 of an $800 allotment already had been raised, and that the remainder would be forthcoming before February 1. Rev. W.
